Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my gratitude for the opportunity to fast-track publish my research article in your esteemed journal. As an early career researcher, this has significantly boosted my academic career and allowed me to share my findings with a wider audience in a timely manner.

our research with ID /UJPH-17631410-20230306-234931. If additional costs are required, we are happy to add contribution costs.

The fast-track publishing process was efficient and effective, and the editorial team provided valuable feedback and guidance throughout the process. The quick turnaround time allowed me to submit my work for consideration by other publishers and present my research at conferences, which has led to greater exposure and collaboration opportunities.

I appreciate the dedication of your team in providing a platform for researchers to share their work and engage with the academic community. I look forward to future opportunities to work with your journal and contribute to the advancement of knowledge in my field.

Thank you again for the opportunity to fast-track and publish my research article and for your ongoing support of the academic community.

Sincerely,
Ferry
Best Regard

Dear Ferry Fadzul Rahman,

Thank you for your interest in publishing your work in HRPUB.

Your manuscript has now been peer reviewed and the comments are accessible in Word format. Peer review reports are also downloadable in Online Manuscript Tracking System (http://www.hrpub.org/submit/login.php).

We would be grateful if you could address the comments of the reviewers in a revised manuscript and answer all questions raised by reviewers in a cover letter. Any revision should be made on the attached manuscript.

Note:

- 1. In addition to necessary revisions, please note that the similarity index of the revised version should be lower than 18% and similarity from a single source should not exceed 5%.
2. Based on the theme of your manuscript, we would like to recommend the following published articles for your reference. If it is useful in enriching your manuscript, you can cite them in your manuscript. If not, just ignore it.
The Association between Online Health-related Information Seeking Behavior and Self-care Activities among Patients with Diabetes Mellitus in Saudi Arabia https://doi.org/10.13189/ujph.2022.100404 to me

Dear Ferry Fadzul Rahman,

Thank you very much for submitting your manuscript to HRPUB

In order to expedite the publication process, your manuscript entitled "Indonesian Perspectives about Telemedicine: Strength of Social Support, Access, and Internet Use Telehealth Usability Amidst Covid-19" has been sent out to evaluate.

But some problems need to be addressed.

We would be grateful to you if you could revise your manuscript according to the following comments:

- 1. The abstract in your manuscript is short. The abstract should be written as a continuous paragraph with 200-350 words and recapitulate the background of the research, purpose, methodologies, principal results, major conclusions and its contributions to the field. It should emphasize new or important aspects of the study. Research limitations/implications, practical implications, and social implications should also be included, if relevant to your manuscripts.

*Please highlight the changes you have made.

Kindly respond to the evaluation and send your revised manuscript to preview.hrpub@gmail.com as soon as possible. Please track status of your manuscript through the Online Manuscript Tracking System.

We will contact you again once a new decision is made on your manuscript. You will expect a review report from Anthony Robinson (revision.hrpub@gmail.com) in the following 45 days. Peer review reports are also downloadable in Online Manuscript Tracking System (http://www.hrpub.org/submit/login.php) once the review process is completed.

The author will be requested to pay the Article Processing Charges after the manuscript is accepted for publication.

For the charging standard, please refer to http://www.hrpub.org/journals/jour_charge.php?id=78

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions. Besides, could you please leave us an alternate Email Address in case?

For more information, please visit the journal's homepage.

About HRPUB
Horizon Research Publishing, USA (HRPUB) is a worldwide open access publisher serving the academic research and scientific communities by launching peer-reviewed journals covering a wide range of academic disciplines. As an international academic organization for researchers & scientists, we aim to provide researchers, writers, academic professors and students the most advanced research achievements in a broad range of areas, and to facilitate the academic exchange between them.
Manuscript Information
Manuscript ID:	17634954
Manuscript Title:	Indonesian Perspectives about Telemedicine: Strength of Social Support, Access, and Internet Use Telehealth Usability Amidst Covid-19
Evaluation Report
General Comments	The paper provides valuable insights into the factors influencing telemedicine usage in Indonesia during the COVID-19 pandemic. Although the results and analysis are relevant, improvements in structure, clarity, and writing style would significantly elevate the paper's contribution and efficacy. Additionally, further analysis on how the findings of this study can be applied or compared to global trends and practices in telemedicine could benefit readers outside the Indonesian context. In essence, the paper presents a solid foundation for further research on the influence of various factors on telemedicine usage. With appropriate enhancements, it can provide a significant contribution to the academic community and telemedicine practice.
Advantage & Disadvantage	The study focuses on an analysis of how knowledge, attitudes, internet accessibility, and social support influence users' skills in utilizing telemedicine. The paper is rich in data and analyses, offering insights into the complex web of factors influencing telemedicine usage in a specific geographic and social context. The methodology is clearly articulated, including the description of the survey instrument and inclusion criteria. The transparency in data collection and analysis is also commendable. Selected statistical tests are suitable for analyzing the collected data and detailed statistical analysis with multivariate testing contributes to a deeper understanding of the dynamics between variables. In the paper, recent and high-quality data sources are used, however, the literature citations are not in accordance with the journal's guidelines.
How to improve	The paper could be more clearly structured. Repetitions and an uneven structure make it challenging for the reader to follow the flow of argumentation and interpret the results. While rich in data, the analysis and discussion could be more focused. A stronger integration of comparisons with previous research and theoretical frameworks could better highlight the implications of the results. The writing style could be enhanced for better readability and understanding. The text can sometimes be challenging to follow due to complex sentences and terminology. Author(s) should reorganize the content for better coherence and logical sequence of information. Onwards, integrate a deeper analysis relating to global trends and practices in telemedicine, and how the findings of this study contribute to the broader field of knowledge. Revise and edit the language for better readability and understanding, including reducing technical terminology where possible.
Please rate the following: (1 = Excellent) (2 = Good) (3 = Fair) (4 = Poor)

Originality:	2
Contribution to the Field:	2
Technical Quality:	2
Clarity of Presentation :	2
Depth of Research:	2
